Brilliant is Open for Business

While we have great concern for our employees and clients, Brilliant Environmental Services, LLC (Brilliant) is open for business. Whether in our office or working remotely, Brilliant's staff has the technical capability to satisfy your site remediation needs. In addition, most if not all of our field work is completed within a day and by 1 or 2 members of our staff or our team, so no large gatherings.

Though actual in-person meetings may be difficult, if you have a new project or need to discuss your current project, we can do video conference calls or just use the old fashion telephone. Brilliant has great concern for ourselves and our subcontractors and friends during this time, so we anticipate keeping a full schedule, unless we are shut down by government officials. Now is the time to plan for your summer project or next property transaction. Work needs to be done and we are ready to do it!

If you have any questions or need to discuss a project, please contact us. Please know that our #1 concern and priority is the safety of all at Brilliant, that includes, staff, family, friends and clients.

Be safe and be smart.
